

Archbishop Thabo Makgoba invites your participation in this strategic and exciting project

“Our aim is to affirm and consolidate theological education as central to the Anglican Church in Southern Africa, and particularly promote and develop the role played by the College of the Transfiguration, our seminary in Grahamstown.

“This is at the heart of our fundamental strategy of ensuring that both ordained and lay leaders are well-equipped for guiding, directing, and encouraging the life of our Church and its members: in our ministry within our parishes and in our mission to the world at every level.

“One of the central objectives of this year is to provide a firm financial basis for the College of the Transfiguration.

“We are therefore asking every Anglican who is able to donate R10 or R100 [or more, if you feel moved to do so!] towards this, through your parishes, in a special collection that will be made on Theological Education Sunday, 18 August.”

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION
SUNDAY
18 AUGUST 2013

Make an investment to support the theological education and spiritual formation of clergy and lay people for ACSA

The Future of the Church depends on it!

With its eye on the future and its hand on the present our Church seeks to develop a sound Theological Education and Spiritual Formation training programme for clergy and lay people.

Your contribution will support the establishment of an endowment fund to provide for the continuing development of the College of the Transfiguration, its teaching staff, buildings and grounds, library, computer lab and other resources to ensure quality education and training.

The endowment fund will provide bursaries to ensure that those who offer themselves for ministry receive the necessary training to prepare them to respond to their vocations.
